

GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 4.—Ellis M. Peck, who was in the hardware plumbing business in this city for fifty years, died at his home here to-day. He was seventy-eight years old. During the Civil War he was a member of Company I, 104th Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, which was at Vicksburg. Peck is survived by four sons, one of whom is E. Gordon Peck of New York, and one daughter. He was prominent in Masonic and G. A. R. circles.

The story of W. G. Grace, chief engineer of the Goethals, big of frame, boyish of face and manner, was clearest in the narrative of the drama which worked itself out on the glass surface of the Atlantic. Here is his account:

"We went straight to the submarine and made fast to the staging which the carpenter from the Aianthus had started so a working footing was possible."

"It seemed hours before we were

Cop Dragged Block by Runaway.
Policeman Griffin of Morrisania station to-day was dragged a block by a runaway horse. The animal, which was in East 167th Street near Third Avenue. He served a summons on Jacob Marchese, of No. 285 East 151st Street, a junkman, for leaving his horse unattended.

The cost of enforcing prohibitherefore averages about $45 monthly.

ORANGE
Tea as distinctive in business, purity and flavor. Every leaf tells its story in sealed packets only.

E PEKOE

that it abounds in richness.
of deliciousness—sold

You can subscribe now for a week or any length of time you wish, and we will change your address as often as you desire.

Tell your regular newsdealer where you want the paper sent and he will attend with The World to mail it to you, or send your remittance direct to

Cashier, New York World, Pulitzer Building, New York City.